

AT THE THEATRES.

De Wolf Hopper at the Broadway Theatre.
After one of the most brilliant and prosperous tours in the history of comic opera, that merry comedian De Wolf Hopper and his now famous organization of fun-makers and singers returned to New York city last Monday evening to begin a brief engagement of four weeks at the Broadway Theatre in "Wang," which is undoubtedly the reigning musical success of the season.

Mr. Hopper presents the entire original cast, and the same large well-drilled chorus that were seen and heard during his brilliant engagement of twenty-two weeks at the Broadway Theatre last spring and summer; and the same elaborate stage settings, brilliantly picturesque costumes, and wonderful mechanical effects that have been such prime factors in "Wang's" immense popularity will be again employed.

Contrary to the expectation of his many friends and admirers, Mr. Hopper and his clever associates in "Wang" will not form one of the attractions during the summer season in the metropolis; for at the close of his Broadway engagement, the big, tall comedian will sail for Europe, and during his absence will make an extended tour of Great Britain and the Continent, returning in ample time to be present at the opening rehearsals of his new opera—which is now being written and composed by J. Cheever Goodwin and Woolson Morse, the author and composer of "Wang"—which will be presented for the first time on any stage at the Broadway Theatre on August 15th next, and in which every member of the present Hopper company will appear.

De Wolf Hopper is unquestionably a prime favorite in New York city, and with his excellent company and the popular "Wang," it is quite safe to predict a succession of well-filled houses during his short stay in the metropolis.

"Reilly and the 400" at Miner's.

Edward Harrigan, the comedian, accompanied by his own comedy company, under the management of M. W. Hanley, with Dave Braham and orchestra, from Harrigan's Theatre in New York, will appear at Miner's Newark Theatre all of next week in Mr. Harrigan's latest and greatest comedy success, entitled "Reilly and the 400," with the original cast, scenery, and every stage acquisition, which has made this enjoyable production such a pronounced dramatic hit.

At Waldmann's.

Manager Waldmann has engaged the Henry Burlesque and Athletic Company for next week. This company of famous vaudeville talent is composed of the most expensive and original acts and features of both Europe and America, and numbers in all nearly forty members. The programme is composed of three divisions, division No. 1 is the curtain raiser, and introduces the entire company in a farcical, musical burlesque, by Geo. H. Wood, entitled "Our Lady Bachelor's Hall." It introduces the lady members of the company in flashes of wit, beauty and song, and the funny comedians in many laughable situations. The costumes worn by the female members are patterned after those worn by Lillian Russell in the opera of Apollo at the Casino in New York city, and are composed of the finest materials specially imported.

The Ollo portion of the programme introduces a host of novel specialties by leading high-class performers.

Best Scores at the Olympic.

Good bowling scores are being made at the Olympic nightly, and the best scores for the past week are as follows: Gentlemen—R. T. Cadmus, 202; Howard S. Parker, 187; Henry Decker, 186; O. Hease, 184; Herbert Griffith, 180; Frank G. Tower, 179; J. B. Harrison, 175.

Ladies—Miss Nora Thompson, 162; Mrs. Frank Tower, 138; Mrs. S. S. Rowland, 133; Miss Ruth Hopping, 123; Mrs. F. M. Cossitt, 118.

Davis's ice cream is now supplied at the Olympic.

The Orange Crostown Street Railway will apply to the Township Committee on Monday for permission to change its motive power from horses to electricity.

THE FRESH AIR CLUB.

Three Members Take Their Annual Walk to Philadelphia.

During the past four years the Fresh Air Club has included in its spring programme of jaunts a road walk to Philadelphia from New York city, a few of the members going into special training for the event. Last Saturday was the day appointed for the start, and at 5.30 A. M. the walkers assembled at Cortlandt Street, ferrying over to Jersey City, where they were received and started by the genial Dr. J. S. McBride, himself a veteran of the Fresh Air Club. At 5.41 the doctor gave the word to the party of three, which consisted of Val J. Grode, M. A. C.; J. R. Salmon of Newark, Timekeeper, and Robert Edmiston of Bloomfield.

The road lay through Jersey City, Newark, Waverley, Elizabeth, (breakfast) Rahway, Metuchen, New Brunswick (dinner), Franklin Park, and Kingston to the Nassau Hotel, Princeton, arriving at 5.35 P. M. Distance 46 miles; net time, 10 hours, 14 minutes. Baths were quickly followed by supper and early to bed.

Next day at 5.27 found the party continuing their journey from Princeton through Trenton (breakfast), Morrisville, Tullytown, Bristol (lunch), Holmsburg and Frankford, arriving at the railroad depot, corner of Broad and Market Streets, Philadelphia, 4.35 P. M. Distance, 44 miles; time, 9 hours 40 minutes. The average gait for the entire ninety miles was a shade better than four and one-half miles per hour, the second day's time being a trifle quicker than that of the first. While between Holmsburg and Frankford, Salmon announced the walking of the eighty-second mile to have been done inside twelve minutes, and at the finish it was found that the previous two-day record had been lowered fifty-two minutes.

Grode was the most fortunate one of the trampers; while his companions were enjoying the beautiful scenery, he thoughtfully studied the road, and was rewarded in Morrisville and Frankford by picking up small sums of money. His luck changed, however; when walking down Kensington Avenue one of the so-called guided youth of the Quaker

City applied to him the epithet of "hayseed." This was too much for Grode, who has never lived outside New York city, so he declined to reply, but strode along the uneven brick sidewalk, never recovering his equanimity till aboard the railroad train returning home. Salmon was sorry when the walk had finished. On returning he left the train at Newark, with the intention of walking to Roseville and making a call on some of his friends.

Knights of Honor Visit Belleville.

On Friday evening of last week a large number of the members of Excelsior Lodge, Knights of Honor, paid a fraternal visit to Valley Lodge of Belleville. The visit was in the form of a surprise party. The meeting having been placed in the hands of the Entertainment Committee of Excelsior Lodge, the various members from Bloomfield responded with songs, recitations, etc., in a manner long to be remembered. Bros. Sommerkamp, Monk, Robotham and the Cadmus brothers contributed several well-rendered and much appreciated songs. Bros. Hunt, Bailey, Chas. Farrand, Mitchell and Cadmus with recitations. Remarks suitable to the occasion were also made by Dictator Rusby, followed by Past Grand Dictator Jones of Belleville. Bro. Fred Bersteecher presided at the pipe organ. After sandwiches, coffee and cigars, the members returned home having spent one of the most pleasant evenings in the history of Excelsior Lodge. A similar visit is proposed at an early date to Franklin. The thanks of all are due to Bro. Mitchell for the ride.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church convenes at Portland, Oregon, next week. No gathering of Presbyterians of late years has been looked forward to with such interest as this one. The question of revising the Westminster Catechism, which occupied so much of the time of the Detroit Assembly, is overshadowed by a controversy of greater magnitude and deeper interest to the general public. It is the case of Dr. Briggs and Union Theological Seminary.

Entertainment in the German Church. The Sunday-school room of the German Church on Park Avenue, was filled on Wednesday evening on the occasion of the concert given by the Young People's Society of the church. The programme consisted of recitations by Minnie Martini and Tillie Mouse; a zither solo by the Miller Brothers and John Jensen of the Seminary, and a farce comedy by Students F. J. A. W. Hock, Herman E. Schnatz, and Karl Schlegel. Ice cream and cake were served after the entertainment. The proceeds will go toward the building fund of the church.

A FEW HINTS!

About Boys' Clothing. In selecting a suit for your boy, no matter if it is only a school suit, insist on having one that fits well and is cut in a stylish manner. See to it that the material is not only serviceable, but that it is substantially made. If you secure these two qualifications there is only one left. Let the price be moderate. These are the Three cardinal principles (Style, Quality and Price) upon which we are building up our Boys' Clothing Business. As we handle only Boys' clothing, a visit to our store will repay you.

BARGAINS AT THE CRESCENT!

Queen Victoria

Is the only Queen in Europe who has never ordered a toilette from Worth, the renowned Paris dressmaker, although Worth by birth and reared his art originally in London.

Beef, Iron and Wine—Full Pint Bottle, 40 Cents.

Liebig's Extract of Beef, Power's and Weightman's Extract of Iron; Leland Stanford's California Sherry Wine, three years' age—the combination flavored slightly with Oil of Florida Orange, made by Schaeffelt, Micanopy, Florida. Why continue to pay $1.00 for Wyeth's Beef, Iron and Wine, or even sixty-eight cents at cut stores? Why pay other druggists fifty cents for a fourteen-ounce bottle of the compound made by Stearns & Co., of Detroit, and which is labeled "Our Own Beef, Wine and Iron"? Buy the CRESCENT BEEF, WINE AND IRON—made fresh each week—forty cents for a full pint bottle. Be it always understood—with the CRESCENT stamp it's good.

Speaking of Bargains, we would remind our readers that apples by the barrel are cheaper than by the quart. Handling our goods in larger quantities than any other house in the country, we own them at lower figures and can afford to quote at lower prices than any of our competitors. And again, the house that does the largest business is pretty sure to give its customers greatest bargains, for a large business has always low prices and fair dealing for its foundation.

The Attention of the Public is Called to the Following Bargains!

Come and Look at the Goods, Then Go To Other Drug Stores, or To Dry Goods Stores, or To Bazar Stores, or To Any Other Store, and Shop For Low Prices. You Will Come Back and Purchase From the Crescent.
